16번부터 17번은 두 번 들려줍니다.

[16 ~ 17] 다음을 듣고, 물음에 답하시오.

W: Hello, class. You must have heard of the proverb, 'Birds of a feather flock together.' We all know what this proverb means because it's commonly used. Like this, there are many proverbs in which animals appear. Let's talk about them today. First one is, 'When the cat's away, the mice will play.' It is using the fun relationship between the two animals. We can easily guess the meaning of this proverb: the weaker do whatever they want when the stronger are not around. The next one is, 'Don't count your chickens before they're hatched.' It's using a chicken's life cycle. From this proverb, we can learn the lesson that we should not make hasty decisions. Now it's your turn to talk about a few proverbs like these. You may have already thought about one with dogs, like 'Every dog has its day.' Let's talk about some together.
