W: _____

2. 대화를 듣고, 여자의 마지막 말에 대한 남자의 응답으로 가장 적절한 것을 고르시오.

W: Mike, do you know how long this milk has been on the table?

M: Oops! I left it there last night, Mom.

3. 다음을 듣고, 남자가 하는 말의 목적으로 가장 적절한 것을 고르시오.

M: Good morning, residents of Greenville! I'm Allen Bailey, manager of Greenville Street Festival. As you're well aware, we'll host Greenville Street Festival this Saturday. During this event, exciting booths will be set up along the streets. Parades, live music concerts and dance performances will be held as well. To ensure that the event runs smoothly, some of the city streets are going to be closed to traffic on the day of the festival. The roads that will be closed are St. Peters Street and St. Owen Street. Closure times will be from 7 a.m. to 10 p.m. on Saturday, March 10. Drivers should take alternative routes, which will be posted on the festival website. We're sorry for the inconvenience caused by this event, and we appreciate your cooperation in advance.

4. 대화를 듣고, 남자의 의견으로 가장 적절한 것을 고르시오.

W: Honey, Kate says that she'd like to go to the business startup camp during her vacation.

M: I know. I want her to go to the camp.

W: Why? She's going to major in Art.

M: I believe it'll help her to become an artist.

W: What does business startup have to do with art?

M: She can meet people from different fields and get inspiration.

W: I think at this time she should focus on her art lessons.

M: That can be true, but she needs to have diverse experiences to be more creative.

W: Well, I'm just worried that it'll take up too much of her time.

M: It'll be worth the time. If Kate stays only in one field, her ideas may be limited. She needs experiences in diverse areas.

W: Okay, if you say so. I trust your judgment.

5. 대화를 듣고, 두 사람의 관계를 가장 잘 나타낸 것을 고르시오.

W: Nice to meet you, Mr. Clarks.

M: The pleasure is all mine, Ms. Jackson.

W: I really love your work. After reading the first episode, I couldn't wait to read the next one.

M: Thanks. I was really glad when you accepted the role.

W: How could I resist? Hannah is an attractive character, and I want to bring her alive in the movie.

M: I'm sure you'll do great. Is there anything I can do to help?

W: Yes. There's a scene where Hannah meets a dragon. The scene will be created by computer graphics, so I have to act using my imagination.

M: That sounds difficult, but that's the most dramatic part of my cartoon.

W: Can you tell me more about Hannah's feelings in that moment?

M: She's not afraid. Rather, she feels excited and curious.

W: Thank you. I'll keep that in mind.

6. 대화를 듣고, 그림에서 대화의 내용과 일치하지 않는 것을 고르시오.

M: This is exactly how I want my garage to be when we move to a new house.

W: Haven't you always wanted to have a work table?

M: Yes. I'll get it attached to the wall just like the one in the picture.

W: I think it's a good idea to put the tools up on the wall like this.

M: Yes. It's a good way to store the hammer, the saw, and the scissors.

W: Look. The bike is hanging from the ceiling.

M: We can do that, too. Oh, there's a canoe below the window.

W: I've always wanted a canoe. Let's buy one when we move.

M: Let's do that. It'll be fantastic.

W: If we put the tires under the canoe like in this picture, we can use the space more efficiently.

M: Sure. I think it's a good idea.

7. 대화를 듣고, 여자가 남자를 위해 할 일로 가장 적절한 것을 고르시오.

M: It's a recording of my choir's rehearsal. We're going to perform at a charity concert next week. Do you want to have a look?

W: Sure, let's see. [Pause] You guys are great. What are the lyrics about?

M: The title of the song is "At a Chinese Restaurant." The lyrics are about different Chinese dishes.

W: Interesting. Is that why you're wearing traditional Chinese costumes?

M: Yeah, but I still want to add something to the performance.

W: Then, how about including some dance moves? It'll make your performance more entertaining.

M: Good idea. But I don't think we have enough time to create dance moves.

M: Yes. The students' interview was especially interesting.

W: That's the highlight of our group's presentation.

M: Have you decided who will be the group presenter?

W: Yes. Benny and I.

M: Then what are the roles of the other members? I don't remember seeing them in your file.

M: Since our children are really into caves, they'll enjoy the tour. How long is it?

W: It lasts about an hour. The tour includes a boat ride through the caves.

M: How much is the fee?

W: It's $18 per adult and $9 per child under 12.

M: That's pretty reasonable. Does it include safety gear?

W: No. There's a two-dollar rental fee for a helmet and a life jacket.

M: Can we bring our dog, too?

W: I'm afraid not. Dogs are not allowed on the boat.

M: I see. Then I'll ask my sister to take care of him. Let's book the tour.

W: Sounds convenient. I want one with an LCD.

M: What about voice command? It's useful.

W: How does it work exactly?

M: You can activate the device with your voice.

W: Sounds cool, but I don't think I'll need that feature.

M: Okay. What seems to be the problem?

W: The eggs are sometimes delivered at nighttime the day before the delivery date.

M: That can happen. The delivery rounds start at nighttime and continue until early in the morning.

W: I'm worried that the eggs will go bad if they stay out all night.

M: You don't need to worry. Since our eggs have never been refrigerated, they remain fresh for days without refrigeration.

W: You mean your eggs are not refrigerated?

M: Exactly. They're fresh from the farm.

W: So are you saying that the eggs are okay left outside for the whole night?

M: Jamie, do you have a minute? I need your advice.

W: Sure. How can I help you?

M: Yellow spots appeared on the leaves of my Benjamin tree, but I don't know why.

W: That usually happens when it's overwatered. I had a similar experience.

M: I watered it once a week as I read online.

W: You shouldn't just follow that. The routine depends on the environment.

M: Can you be more specific?

W: It depends on the light, humidity, and many other factors. Let's say, if your house is humid, you should water the plant less frequently.

M: Then how do I know when to water?

W: Stick your finger into the soil. If it's moist, stop watering and wait until it's dry.

M: Then I should check the soil regularly.

15. 다음 상황 설명을 듣고, David가 Olivia에게 할 말로 가장 적절한 것을 고르시오.

David: _____

M: This spring Olivia is having health problems due to high levels of fine dust. She tells her husband, David, that they need an air purifier. They go to a shopping mall to look around. They see several models on display. Olivia wants to get one of the latest models, but she's not sure if she'll like it. David remembers that some companies offer services where customers can try out products before they actually make a purchase. He thinks that such services might be available for air purifiers, too. When they use the trial service, they'll know if the model is good for them. He wants to suggest this idea to her. In this situation, what would David most likely say to Olivia?

16번부터 17번은 두 번 들려줍니다.

[16 ~ 17] 다음을 듣고, 물음에 답하십시오.

W: Hello, students. Welcome back to lab class. I'm afraid I have to start today's class with news about an incident that happened yesterday. A student dropped a bottle containing chemicals. It could have led to a serious accident, but fortunately nobody was hurt. It was because everyone was equipped with protective wear. This is why I want to emphasize the importance of protective wear before we start. First, change into your lab boots. They're as important as your lab coats. Wear your goggles and rubber gloves to protect your eyes and hands. Put on your face masks to cover your nose and mouth. The weather's rather hot, so it may not be comfortable to keep these things on throughout the class. But remember these are for your own safety. We'll get started when you're ready.
