1. 대화를 듣고, 여자의 마지막 말에 대한 남자의 응답으로 가장 적절한 것을 고르시오.

W: Honey, look at my arm. I can't stop scratching it!

M: Oh, it has become so swollen. It might be some sort of insect bite.

W: It has been bothering me all day. Do we have any medicine for it?

M: _____

2. 대화를 듣고, 남자의 마지막 말에 대한 여자의 응답으로 가장 적절한 것을 고르시오.

M: Kate, do you have any plans for Saturday?

W: I only have a tennis lesson in the morning. Why?

M: I was wondering if you could come to school and help me install the new 3D printer.

W: _____

3. 다음을 듣고, 여자가 하는 말의 목적으로 가장 적절한 것을 고르시오.

W: Hello. I'm Laura Johnson, the senior director of AAR. AAR is a nonprofit organization managed and maintained entirely by volunteers. Our mission is to protect helpless, abandoned animals and place them in permanent homes. Each day, it takes about 30 volunteers to care for the animals, monitor intake and adoptions, and manage the office and clinic. Even more volunteers are needed to hold fundraising events and keep up with administrative and financial paperwork. When you volunteer at AAR, your time really is spent helping the animals. Join us! Two hours a week can make a significant difference in a pet's life!

4. 대화를 듣고, 여자의 의견으로 가장 적절한 것을 고르시오.

W: Hey, Steve, you look upset. What's the matter?

M: It's the essay assignment. I don't know where to start. Can you help me, Ellen?

W: Okay. Then, why don't you start by writing the conclusion?

M: Do you mean I should write the end first without an outline? What if it makes my essay look illogical?

W: Don't worry, Steve. Actually, writing your conclusion first will help keep your essay organized because you will know where you're going.

M: I've never thought about that.

W: The more clearly you know what your closing thought is, the easier it is to strengthen your logic through appropriate supporting ideas.

M: Oh, I see. If I write my conclusion first, it'll help make my main idea clear.

W: You got the point, Steve.

M: Thanks a lot. I'll give it a try.

5. 대화를 듣고, 두 사람의 관계를 가장 잘 나타낸 것을 고르시오.

M: Yes. How can I help you?

W: I just want to make sure that our students can bring their own costumes for their class photos.

M: Yes, of course. After I finish taking pictures of individual students, they can change from their school uniforms to their own costumes for their class photos.

W: Students in my class will love it. Then, how long will it take to finish the whole session?

M: It'll take about two hours. It ends sooner if all the students show up on time.

W: Okay. I'll remind our students that they should all come to Central Park by 9 a.m.

M: That'll make my job a lot easier. See you at Central Park.

M: Is that your father beside your brother?

W: Yes, her name is Lucy. She's lying on the floor sleeping while we're busy preparing for the party.

W: It would be a great honor for me. I've recently published an article on Hemingway. When is the conference?

M: It'll be held on August 18th in Chicago.

W: Oh, no. I'm afraid I can't participate in the conference.

M: Why not? Do you have other plans on the 18th?

M: I don't think I need anything else. I'll pay the delivery fee.

W: All right. Please fill in your address here first.

[16~17] 다음을 듣고, 물음에 답하십시오.

M: Hi, class. Last time we talked about the habitats of insects. From today, we'll learn about their diets. Surprisingly, some of them eat other insects. For example, dragonflies feed on any flying insects they can catch. Although they usually catch prey in flight, they can snatch insects from exposed surfaces, too. Also, some ants eat the dead bodies of insects much larger than they are. There are even ants that eat each other. In fact, a queen ant might eat her own eggs if she doesn't have any other food to survive. Next, tiger beetles, the fastest insects on our planet, use their incredible speed to chase down prey such as other small insects. They can travel about 2.5 meters per second. Finally, many ladybugs are predators. Most of what they prey on are considered pests to humans who like to grow plants. There must be more insects you know about. Take a minute to think, and then we'll talk about it.
