1. 대화를 듣고, 남자의 마지막 말에 대한 여자의 응답으로 가장 적절한 것을 고르시오.

M: Honey, what did the weather forecast say this morning?

W: It said the level of fine dust is high today. We'd better wear a mask.

M: Okay, I will. Where are the masks?

W: _____

2. 대화를 듣고, 여자의 마지막 말에 대한 남자의 응답으로 가장 적절한 것을 고르시오.

W: What's wrong with this computer? The file won't open up.

M: Let me see. I think the computer works fine but this file seems to be broken.

W: Oh, no. Our presentation is in half an hour. We can't do the presentation without the file.

M: _____

3. 다음을 듣고, 남자가 하는 말의 목적으로 가장 적절한 것을 고르시오.

M: Good morning, students. This is your vice principal, Mr. Marcus. As you know, students and teachers from our sister school in Singapore are visiting us next Monday for the exchange program. We've been looking forward to their visit and have arranged many things. Unfortunately, one of the students who volunteered to offer a homestay accommodation came down with the flu. We need to find a new host family who can accommodate a female student for two nights. She is in 10th grade and likes pop music. She doesn't mind dogs or cats. Hosting a guest will give you an opportunity to make a foreign friend. If you are interested, please visit the administration office today.

4. 대화를 듣고, 여자의 의견으로 가장 적절한 것을 고르시오.

W: Jason, you look worried. Something wrong?

M: I've been working on the invention project for hours, but can't come up with any good ideas.

W: Well, then why don't you stop working on it, go outside and take a walk? That's what I often do when I'm stuck.

M: I don't have time for that. The project is due next Monday.

W: I understand. But just sitting at a desk doesn't always help. Taking a walk instead may help you think outside the box.

M: Really? How come?

W: While walking around, you can see different things. Seeing various scenes can give you some inspiration.

M: I've never thought about it that way.

W: Besides, fresh air can make your brain work better and help you develop new ideas.

M: That does make sense. Thanks for the tip.

5. 대화를 듣고, 두 사람의 관계를 가장 잘 나타낸 것을 고르시오.

W: Hi, Kevin. You came again. It seems you brought more books today.

M: That's right. I'm moving out next month, so I'm clearing out my stuff.

W: I see. Can you put the books on the counter, please?

M: Sure. I hope you don't reject too many books like the last time.

W: I'm sorry about that but I don't accept books with stains. It's been my policy since I opened this bookstore.

M: I understand. I wouldn't buy secondhand books with stains myself.

W: I appreciate your understanding. Well, these books seem to be in better condition than the last time.

M: Then, are you taking them all?

W: Yes. I think I can give you $30. Is that okay?

M: Sure.

6. 대화를 듣고, 그림에서 대화의 내용과 일치하지 않는 것을 고르시오.

M: Sarah, I've finally finished setting up our stage for the play. How do you like it?

W: Looks great. The sofa in the center of the stage looks familiar.

M: It used to be in the meeting room.

W: I see. The fireplace on the left of the sofa creates a cozy atmosphere.

M: It does. Don't you like the clock behind the sofa? Mr. Baker kindly lent it to us.

W: How nice of him! The curtains next to the clock look beautiful.

M: The actors will come out on the stage through those curtains.

W: The door on the right is opened. Shouldn't it be closed?

M: No, it shouldn't. It is intended to make the audience curious.

W: Good idea. I hope people like our play.

7. 대화를 듣고, 남자가 할 일로 가장 적절한 것을 고르시오.

M: Hey, Alex. I'm sorry, I'm late.

W: It's okay. Let's go through the things we need to do to make the school promotional video.

M: Okay.

W: How did the interview with the principal go?

M: It took longer than I expected, but it went well.

W: Did you borrow a drone from Mr. Parker?

M: Yes, but he told me to bring it back by tomorrow. That means we don't have much time to film the campus.

W: Right. We also have to prepare for the interviews with graduates. I think we'd better split the work.

M: I haven't flown a drone before. Can I write the interview questions?

W: No problem. While you write the interview questions, I can go out and film the campus.

M: All right. See you in 30 minutes.

8. 대화를 듣고, 여자가 회의 장소를 바꾸려는 이유를 고르시오.

M: Ms. Park, are we having a meeting in Room 707?

W: No, I'm going to change the room.

M: Why? Isn't the room available? I like the new projector in that room.

W: I know. That's why I reserved that room a week ago. But we have an issue.

M: I've heard recently there were some complaints about the lighting in the room. Is that the problem?

W: No. When I checked the room this morning, the lights were working fine.

M: Can't we just use the room then? It would be a lot of trouble to change the room.

W: The thing is the heating system is broken. I got a message from the management office just an hour ago.

M: The weather is very cold today. It seems you have no choice but to change the room.

W: I'll let you know as soon as I find another room for our meeting.

9. 대화를 듣고, 남자가 지불할 금액을 고르시오.

[Phone rings.]

W: Hello, Emerald Lake Festival. How may I help you?

M: I'd like to buy tickets for the festival. How much is it?

W: It's $100 per adult and $50 per child. How many tickets do you need?

M: Two adults and one child. And I heard campsites are available during the festival.

W: Sure. Would you like to make a reservation for the campsite, too?

M: Yes. How much does it cost?

W: It's $50 per site. How many sites do you need?

M: I just need one.

W: Do you also need our rental service? We offer tents and other camping equipment.

M: No. I'm going to bring my own.

W: Okay. If you pay now, you can get a 20% discount off the total price.

M: Great. I'll pay with my credit card.

10. 대화를 듣고, Meet The Mayor에 관해 언급되지 않은 것을 고르시오.

W: Jake, have you heard of the event Meet The Mayor?

M: What is that? Can we meet the mayor in person?

W: Yes. The event is for foreign residents like us living in this city.

M: That sounds interesting. I have a lot to share with the mayor. But I'm not fluent in Korean.

W: Don't worry. It'll be conducted in both Korean and English.

M: Wonderful. I'd like to go. When is it?

W: On April 20th at 3 p.m. Do you want to come along? I'm going to register today.

M: How long will the event last? I have to attend my friend's wedding at 6 p.m. that day.

W: It'll last about 2 hours. Where does the wedding take place?

M: Near City Hall.

W: Then you can make it. The event is at City Hall.

M: Good. Let's go together.

11. Clothing Drive Competition에 관한 다음 내용을 듣고, 일치하지 않는 것을 고르시오.

W: Hello, students. I'm your student council president, Tracy Anderson. The student council is hosting the annual Clothing Drive Competition. The collected clothes will be donated to a local charity. The names of all participants will be posted as donors on our school website. The class with the most donated clothes will win 6 boxes of pizza as a prize! Remember that we only accept gently used clothes, and make sure to wash them before you donate. Also, there's no pick up service, so each class needs to bring the collected clothes to the student council room themselves. We'll accept them until March 25th, 4 p.m.

12. 다음 표를 보면서 대화를 듣고, 여자가 구매할 개집을 고르시오.

M: Welcome to Sunrise Pet Supply. How may I help you?

W: Hello. I'm looking for a dog house.

M: Let me show you our catalog. [Pause] Do you have a preference for any material? We have fabric, plastic, and wood.

W: I don't want the fabric one because it's less durable than the others.

M: I see. Then this one doesn't meet your needs.

W: And I want something under $100.

M: Okay. What kind of dog do you have? Is it small or large?

W: It's a Golden Retriever. It's a large dog.

M: Then a small or medium sized dog house won't fit your dog. You have to choose one of these two.

W: Since I'll put the dog house outside, it should be weatherproof.

M: All right. This one is perfect for your dog.

13. 대화를 듣고, 남자의 마지막 말에 대한 여자의 응답으로 가장 적절한 것을 고르시오.

W: Brian, are you ready for the field trip tomorrow? I'm really excited.

M: Didn't you hear the news? We're not going on the field trip tomorrow.

W: Really? What's the problem?

M: Because of the flood warning. Some roads are already closed.

W: I can't believe it. Then is the trip canceled?

M: No. I read on the school website that it's just postponed until next weekend.

W: Oh, no. I can't go next weekend.

M: Why can't you make it?

W: Next Saturday is my grandfather's 80th birthday. All my family will get together and have a party.

M: You've been looking forward to the field trip since the beginning of this semester. You may be disappointed if you don't go.

W: _____

W: Hi, Mark. I heard your musical club is preparing for the school festival next month. Is everything going well?

M: Actually not. Judy broke her ankle, so she cannot perform on the day of the festival.

W: I'm sorry to hear that.

M: We're planning to hold an open audition for Judy's spot.

W: Really? I'd like to apply for the audition.

M: Then come to our club room this Friday at 3 p.m.

W: This Friday? I can't make it that day. I have to play in the tennis tournament.

M: Too bad that you can't come to the audition.

W: I've always wanted to be in a musical. Is there any other way to get a chance to audition?

M: I'm not sure. We really need to see you perform.

W: What if I record my singing and dancing and send it to you?

M: _____

15. 다음 상황 설명을 듣고, Rita가 Justin에게 할 말로 가장 적절한 것을 고르시오.

M: Rita is a high school student. She actively participates in various school activities. Today, Rita sees a notice on the school bulletin board about a debate competition. She suggests to her friend Justin they apply together as a team but he hesitates. He thinks preparing for the competition is a big burden because he has no experience in debate competitions. Rita thinks differently. Justin is a fluent speaker and has lots of background knowledge and she has a lot of debating experience. So Rita wants to tell him if they work together, they have a chance to win. In this situation, what would Rita most likely say to Justin?

16번부터 17번은 두 번 들려줍니다.

[16 ~ 17] 다음을 듣고, 물음에 답하십시오.

W: Imagine you come home from a long day's work, open your door, and smell strong odors. That's not a home you want to be in. Everyone wants a house with a pleasant fresh smell, but how can you get that? Let me briefly tell you how. To make your house smell fresh, you have to find where the odors are coming from in your house and remove them. Carpet and rugs can soak up unwanted odors quickly. To remove them, spread baking soda and vacuum it up after 20 minutes. It will absorb the smell. Next, check your closet. Frequently open your closet doors to air out the smell. Cleaning your trash can is also a must. The trash can is usually the origin of offensive smells. If you have a pet, don't forget to check pet toys and bedding and clean them. Let them dry out in the sun to combat the pet smell. After removing unpleasant odors, use plants and essential oils to fill your house with natural scents.
